SET UP / DISPLAY

This is a gallery show, not a craft show. Pieces need to be finished well and displayed thoughtfully and beautifully. Artists are responsible for setting up their own display – it must be neat, appealing, and professional. Committee organizers will adjust merchandise and displays as they see fit.

SPACE Artists are asked to provide LowellArts with their space needs (i.e. wall space), and the dimensions of any display item/furniture/rack to be used for display. Your space assignment is subject to change upon the discretion of event organizers. A form will be sent so that artists can communicate space needs. Space will be assigned based on the individual needs of the artists. Spaces range from 6ft to 3ft of floor area. Artists are encouraged to utilize the vertical space in their display.

WALLS Artists are allowed to use the gallery walls for hanging artwork. ONLY small finish nails should be used, nails will be provided. Do not leave marks on the walls, even with pencil. Poster putty is ok to use, but NO other tapes, hooks, or nails may be used. Artwork can be hung salon style. Wall hung work should be accessible with a step stool.

DISPLAYS Artists should supply their own artwork displays/racks/tables and black table coverings. The set-up crew leaders will approve displays with the goal of creating a unified and professional overall presentation. All shelving / rack displays need to be approved ahead of time. All displays need to be sturdy, in good condition, and professional. The back sides of any displays should also be attractive or covered so that adjacent artists don't have a mess showing.

Boxes or stands used in the displays should be nice baskets or boxes (not plastic unless acrylic). Artists should use BLACK table coverings only. Tables should have coverings that reach the floor, and they need to be ironed and wrinkle-free. Displays can be enhanced with solid color overlays of white, silver, or red (no lace). No draped garland please. If the table is finished with paint or is natural wood, it may not need a table covering. Please ask if you are not sure.

ARTWORK This is a juried show and all artwork needs to be representative of the images and descriptions previously provided by the artist. If there is a change or addition to the type of artwork that is to be displayed, please notify LowellArts prior to the show to have the new items approved. Only artwork by the selected artists may be put on display. Artists should provide: Artwork priced, labeled, and ready for display and additional stock as needed.

DEMONSTRATIONS / WORKSHOPS Artists are encouraged to consider providing artwork demonstrations or workshops at scheduled times during the show. Let us know if this interests you.

STAFFING / VOLUNTEERS Artists will be expected to volunteer to work 3 half-day sales shifts during open hours, if they have opted for Option 1 (LowellArts taking 30% commission on all sales). An email will be sent out from an on-line program called Sign-up Genius. Shifts will be listed there and you can sign-up. (Or, call us if you prefer). LowellArts will provide: volunteer training to staff the show, bags and wrapping materials, and all the necessary items to make sales at a central cashiering station.

SPECIAL SALES GENERATING EVENTS Christmas Through Lowell – November 15, 16, and 17; LowellArts Member's Weekend – December 6, 7, and 8.

PROMOTION All artists should take time to promote this show to their contacts – Facebook, email lists, and other social media. A postcard and poster will be produced by LowellArts and will be distributed around the area. Postcards and posters will be available to artists as well.

TAGGING

- Artists are responsible for tracking their own inventory. Each item must have its own tag. Be sure tags are securely attached. For larger items and items hung on walls or fixtures, make sure tag is visible without having to move item.
- A three or four letter initial will be assigned to each artist (most likely the first 3-4 letters of the artist's last name). All items must be priced in increments of $.00 or $.50. All items must be priced $3.00 or more.
- Artists are encouraged to bundle together smaller items (i.e. cards).
- Write extremely neat, or use typed tags. Only the artist code and item price are required. Descriptions and inventory numbers are optional and will not be recorded.
- Signage or labels should be nicely made, no mark downs or discounted sales offered.
- It does not matter how small the item is, all items (or items sold as a group) must be labeled and priced individually. The purchaser needs to arrive at the check-out counter with their items labeled with the artist code and a price. Pricing that indicates 'one for this price, or three for a discounted price' is not allowed.

BACK STOCK Artists are encouraged to keep additional stock in the back room. Back stock should not be stored under an artists table. Staff will restock items as instructed by the artist.

SECURITY While staff and volunteers will be carefully monitoring the gallery during open hours, the LowellArts Artists Market is not a risk-free event. LowellArts does not assume financial responsibility for theft or damage of artwork/merchandise on the premises. Artists must understand this risk and take measures to minimize this risk in how pieces are displayed for sale. Jewelry pieces are particularly vulnerable, jewelry items must be displayed in a way that they are not easily pocketed. All small items need backing or mounting large enough to discourage theft.

PAYMENT POLICY LowellArts will be responsible for the collection and payment of Michigan sales tax. Customers can pay with cash, personal checks, Visa, Discover, American Express or MasterCard. LowellArts will retain a 30% commission on each sale, and the artist will retain 70% of each sale - if they work 3 sales shifts. LowellArts will retain a 45% commission on each sale, and the artist will retain 55% of each sale - if they do not work any sales shifts. LowellArts will retain a 55% commission on each sale, and the artist will retain 45% of each sale - if they do not work any sales shifts and do not display their own work. Artist checks will be distributed mid-December & mid-January and will be mailed.

COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT As the copyright/trademark owner of the original work, prints, digital images, and text supplied by artist to LowellArts, the artist gives LowellArts and those acting on behalf of LowellArts permission to use images of copyrighted/trademarked items to publicize the sale, as well as in promotional literature publicizing the organization.

HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT Artist agrees to release and hold harmless LowellArts, other artists or volunteers working on behalf of LowellArts, and the employees, officials, agents and members of LowellArts from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, complaints, suits or other forms of liability that shall arise out of, or by reason of, or be caused by the use or sale of the artwork provided by the artist.
